

Water Department

The water supply system consists of six basic wells that feed a central feeder line that is routed between the two water storage tanks. In the middle of the system, there is a 300,000-gallon storage tank that supplies water in high demand times. The wells draw water from the local aquifer, which is two to three hundred feet below ground level.

Drinking Water Reports
Service Call Fees

Supporting Documents

New Meter Installation Form 54.1 KB

New Customer Form 28.75 KB

Deposit Waiver Form 21.57 KB

Address

Village Offices
108A US-54
Logan, NM 88426
United States

View in Google Maps

34.935698282859, -104.69342035647